Elevating the treasured “seafood shack” to a new level of innovation and excellence, the Boat House beckons guests to relax riverside and take in its expansive, award-winning waterfront views. The restaurant is tucked in Villages on Mount Hope Bay, an active adult mixed product, waterfront community that the developers felt needed an independent dining spot for residents, guests and locals. The Boat House capitalizes on the nautical theme and exterior stylings found throughout the community to create an authentic experience for diners.
